VOLUME CVI.--NO 102. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, MAY 1, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, hap-hazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity, It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1903 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 242 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

IT'S FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

"LOVE LETTERS OF A BOSS"

A petition was filed in the District Court in Omaha, Neb., Saturday, in a sensational suit for $35,000 damages, wherein ex-Postmaster General Robert J. Wynne, now consul general to London; William Loeb, secretary to President Roosevelt, and J. Martin Miller, consul to Aix la Chapelle, in Rhenish Germany, are named as defendants, and Mae C. Wood is named as plaintiff. Miss Wood was formerly a clerk in the Postoffice Department at Washington, and is the young woman who recently won so much notoriety in connection with a love affair and a threatened breach of promise suit wherein Senator Thomas C. Platt, of New York, was the central and most conspicuous figure. Miss Wood was formerly a practicing attorney in Omaha, and she acts as her own attorney in this case.

In her petition Miss Wood alleges that the three distinguished defendants conspired to obtain possession of, and actually did obtain possesion of, certain letters and manuscripts belonging to her which she was preparing to use in a book to be entitled "The Love Affairs of a Boss." The letters which she alleges the defendants obtained possession of were, she affirms, letters written to her by Senator Platt. She alleges that the letters and manuscripts were obtained from her by unfair means, and she asks that she be given judgment against the defendants in the sum of $35,000.

The petition declares that the plaintiff had been engaged to marry an elderly member of the Senate (T. C. Platt), and after the cancellation of the engagement that for the purpose of trying to make an independent living in a literary field, and as compensation for the peculiar humiliations and persecutions she had been subject to she determined to utilize such unfortunate and disagreeable experiences and publish the said book containing verbatim paragraph after paragraph of the silly love expressions contained in said letters which were mixed with political animosities and news. Said manuscripts also being prepared with an actual account of the replies thereto as near as it was possible for this plaintiff to remember."

The bill then tells at length how Miller, a detective employed by the other defendants, by representing himself as an author and publisher, induced her to enter into a publication contract, and, after securing the manuscripts, persuaded her to go to New York, where under duress and by threats, she was forced to give up other letters she possessed. The bill also charges that the defendants caused charges to be circulated that she was about to sue Senator Platt; that the plaintiff never contemplated bringing any such action and never consulted with any attorneys in reference thereto.

King Edward in Paris.

King Edward arrived in Paris at 9:20 o'clock Saturday evening, and was met by British Ambassador Bertie, no French officials being present, in accordance with his majesty's wishes. He was driven to the Hotel Bristol. The crowd at the station shouted: "Long live King Edward!" King Edward's arrival for a three days' stay inaugurates the first of a series of brilliant events covering the next two months, which, through accident or design, promise to exert important influence in showing the world, and Germany in particular, France's strong position among the nations of Europe. These events, occurring simultaneously with the French, German and British negotiations at the Moroccan capital, are calculated to exert powerful influence in the determination of the Moroccan question. The stay of King Edward in Paris, although unofficial, is giving another opportunity for a demonstrative assertion of the Anglo-French understanding. The exchange of official visits between King Edward and President Loubet yesterday afternoon was marked with the utmost cordiality. All the leading diplomats in Paris were guests at President Loubet's dinner in honor of King Edward at the Palace of the Elysee.

Following soon after King Edward's visit comes that of King Alfonso, of Spain, who will remain in Paris six days. Elaborate fetes are now in preparation similar to those when Emperor Nicholas made his memorable visit to the French capital.

Wrecked Life of Unfrocked Priest.

A strange and pathetic romance has been brought to light in Paris by the discovery Friday night of an aged and miserably-old man and woman, who were found asleep on a bench in the Boulevard Diderot. They were clasped in each other's arms, and looked very ill and emaciated. They were removed to the adjoining police station, where cordials were administered, and the couple revived. It was then ascertained that the man, whose name was Jean Lanfret, 68 years old, was an unfrocked priest. Thirty-eight years ago he had fallen deeply in love with a woman who came to him as a penitent. She was living apart from her husband, and the priest, in his infatuation, abandoned his sacred calling for her. A year later the woman left him, and the ex-priest fell upon evil times. Finally, he earned his living as a waiter, but he became ill, and after many vicisitudes he found himself homeless and a vagabond, picking up a few shillings now and then as a market porter.

As he sat on the bench on the Boulevard Diderot Friday night an old woman who had been trying to sell a few faded flowers came and sat next to him, and in her the priest recognized the woman who abandoned him many years ago. She also had suffered many reverses, which had removed the last traces of her beauty. Chance had brought her to the same bench as the ex-priest, and, both suffering from the cold and hunger, they had sunk into sleep as they sat, clasped in each other's arms until discovered by the police.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

WORKING WOMEN

Their Hard Struggle Made Easier—Interesting Statements by a Young Lady in Boston and One in Nashville, Tenn.

All women work; some in their homes, some in church, and some in the whirl of society. And in stores, mills and shops tens of thousands are on the never-ceasing treadmill, earning their daily bread.

All are subject to the same physical laws; all suffer alike from the same physical disturbance, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drifts them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, ovarian troubles, ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, leucorrhœa, or perhaps irregularity or suppression of "monthly periods," causing backache, nervousness, irritability and lassitude.

Women who stand on their feet all day are more susceptible to these troubles than others.

They especially require an invigorating, sustaining medicine which will strengthen the female organism and enable them to bear easily the fatigues of the day, to sleep well at night, and to rise refreshed and cheerful.

How distressing to see a woman struggling to earn a livelihood or perform her household duties when her back and head are aching, she is so tired she can hardly drag about or stand up, and every movement causes pain, the origin of which is due to some derangement of the female organism.

Miss F. Orser of 14 Warrenton Street, Boston, tells women how to avoid such suffering; she writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered misery for several years with irregular menstruation. My back ached; I had bearing down pains, and frequent headaches; I could not sleep and could hardly drag around. I consulted two physicians without relief, and as a last resort, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to my surprise, every ache and pain left me. I gained ten pounds and am in perfect health."

Miss Pearl Ackers of 327 North Summer Street, Nashville, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered with painful periods, severe backache, bearing-down pains, pains across the abdomen; was very nervous and irritable, and my trouble grew worse every month.

"My physician failed to help me and I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon found it was doing me good. All my pains and aches disappeared, and I no longer fear my monthly periods."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for all these troubles. It strengthens the proper muscles, and displacement with all its horrors will no more crush you.

Backache, dizziness, fainting, bearing down pains, disordered stomach, moodiness, dislike of friends and society—all symptoms of the one cause—will be quickly dispelled, and it will make you strong and well.

You can tell the story of your sufferings to a woman, and receive helpful advice free of cost. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 1, 1905.

THE LARGE gathering of Alexandrians at the Washington-Southern Railway depot in this city this afternoon when the remains of the late General Fitzhugh Lee passed through, together with the tolling of the bells, was a fitting tribute to a noble Virginian. About seven years ago a crowd equally as large assembled at the same place to tender him an ovation when he, as Consul General to Havana, was on his way to Washington a few weeks before the outbreak of the Spanish war. At that time the eyes of the civilized world were turned upon General Lee from the fact that he occupied a position of responsibility fraught with momentous results. Today the gathering gazed upon his funeral train, the locomotive clad in the habiliments of mourning and the bell muffled. In the forward car a catafalque upon which rested the remains of the late General was all that was to be seen to remind his friends of the genial soul who had previously stood in the rear car of the train bowing to his many acquaintances. The battles of life, now over, he sleeps well, but his star is not destined to set with his death. He may not be the alpha of the constellation Virginia, but he will nevertheless remain a fixed orb of no small magnitude.

MINISTER BOWEN has been summoned from Venezuela to Washington by cable to explain his charges against Francis B. Loomis, acting Secretary of State, and to defend himself against charges preferred by Loomis, of having caused the publication of the story that Loomis, when at Caracas, had accepted $10,000 from the asphalt trust. The developments in the situation have reached the stage where Bowen must either prove his assertions against the Assistant Secretary of State or leave the diplomatic service. Loomis has demanded that he be confronted with Bowen, and it is in response to this that the latter has been recalled. He is not to return to Venezuela, for, whatever may be the outcome of the investigation, it is realized that his days of usefulness there are over. In the cable message sent to Bowen Saturday Secretary Taft informed him of the reasons why his presence is demanded in Washington. He has been informed that the first reason is his filing of charges against Assistant Secretary Loomis; then there is the charge by Mr. Loomis that Bowen caused the publication of these charges, to which are added Mr. Loomis' emphatic and sweeping denial and his demand that he be confronted with his accuser. In making known the contents of this cablegram Secretary Taft Saturday, for the first time, made official announcement of the fact that Bowen had filed charges against Mr. Loomis. It was at first supposed that the accusations came from President Castro, inasmuch as Castro's representative, when in Washington, declared that Loomis had been in the pay of the asphalt trust. As a result of the charges and counter-charges, which have caused the greatest diplomatic scandal that has ever involved the State Department, there is to be a thorough examination of the asphalt trust's connection with diplomatic affairs in Venezuela. Ample ground has existed for suspicion that the United States has been acting as a cat's-paw for the trust in all recent negotiations with the Venezuelan government, and that the friction between the two countries has been due to the activity of trust agents. While Mr. Loomis may not have been in the pay of the trust, the State Department's activity in behalf of that organization has been peculiar, to say the least, and threatened, for a time, to involve the country in war. Knowledge of the trust's methods in this country convinces every one interested in the matter that, it the unscrupulous use of money would avail to strengthen the cause of the trust in any quarter, the money would immediately be forthcoming. It is regarded as strange, therefore, while Loomis and Bowen are now engaged in piling up charges against each other, they should both have been so active in behalf of trust interests as to cause general public wonder and to force Secretary Taft to intervene in order to prevent the severance of diplomatic relations between this country and Venezuela.

IT IS now definitely known that Eugene V. Debbs, former social democratic candidate for president and originator of the strike against the Pullman Company, is organizing the Industrial Union in opposition to the American Federation of Labor. The socialists have largely abandoned the idea of May Day parades, preferring the more effective work of mass-meetings and phamphlets. But it is proposed to hold May Day demonstrations in connection with meetings at Carnegie Hall and Cooper Union, New York, today. The principal speaker will be Benjamin Hanford, socialistic candidate for vicepresident on the ticket with Eugene Debbs. The socialists have for a long time been watching for an opportunity to espouse labor issues.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., May 1.

The funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee was held this morning at the Church of the Epiphany and immediately following the ceremony a special train bearing the remains started for Richmond, where the interment will take place. Rev. R. H. McKim, rector of the Epiphany, conducted the service, and a brilliant gathering of representatives from official, diplomatic and private life paid last homage to the dead. The committee in charge of the ceremonies was composed of Maj. General Gillespie, Brigadier General Burton, Major Kean and Capt. Michie. The list of honorary pallbearers was headed by the secretary and the assistant secretary of war, and a military escort composed of a squadron of cavalry a battery of artillery and two companies of engineers conveyed the remains from the church to the railroad station where a detail of non-commissioned officers from the 7th cavalry then took charge. The ceremony at the church consisted of the Episcopal ritual, no address of eulogy being delivered by the officiating rector. The District of Columbia Daughters of the Confederacy attended the services in a body by special invitation and several hundred old soldiers, about equally divided between survivors of the opposing camps of the civil war, came to pay honor to their friend. Many floral offerings were received from organizations and individual friends, a handsome offering from the White House with Mrs. Roosevelt's card being one of the first to arrive. Each step of the journey to Richmond will be marked by military ceremonies.

Col. Geo. R Colton, the American official who went to Santo Domingo to assume charge of the collection of the customs revenues of that republic, has reported to Secretary Taft that a plan of organization for the customs service had been agreed upon with the Dominican government. Col. Colton himself has been made principal controller and general receiver. All of the Dominican customs officials now in the service have been continued by Col. Colton who has definitely assumed control of the customs houses. The plan is to turn over to the Dominican government 45 per cent. of the gross revenues from April 1st and to deposit the remainder less the cost of collection in a bank in New York city to meet the foreign debts of Santo Domingo.

Senor Veloz Goiticoa, the Venezuelan charge d'affaires, called at the State Department this afternoon for the purpose of being officially informed of the recall of Mr. Bowen from Caracas and the transfer of Mr. Russell to that post. He announced that Mr. Russell would be very welcome at the Venezuelan capital. Senor Veloz sent a cablegram this evening to his government to inform it of the approaching change in the representation of the United States at Caracas.

Senor Luis Pastor, the new Spanish charge d'affaires who has been sent here from Mexico to take charge of the Spanish legation here pending the arrival of the new Minister was presented to Acting Secretary of State Adee this morning by Senor Wallsy Merina, the second secretary. He was unable to say when the new Minister will arrive.

This is the seventh anniversary of the battle of Manila bay. Many of the officers who served with Commodore Dewey have gathered in this city today to celebrate the victory. Navy feared and respected by all nations. At one o'clock today Admiral and Mrs. Dewey gave a big luncheon at their home in this city to the officers who served on the fleet in Manila bay. Tonight a big dinner is to be given at the Raleigh Hotel over which Admiral Dewey will preside. No one, either in military or official life who did not take part in the Manila bay engagement will be allowed to be present at this dinner.

Postmaster General Cortelyou declined this morning to discuss the reported offer to make him president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. There is good authority, however, for the statement that such an offer has been made, that Senator Knox was the intermediary selected to conduct the negotiations with Mr. Cortelyou and that Mr. Cortelyou is considering the matter, but will not make a decision until after the President's return from the West.

The State Department has been notified by U. S. Ministers Russell, at Bogota; Bowan at Caracas and Barrett at Panama of the receipt by them of their instructions sending Russell to Caracas; Barrett to Bogota, and calling Bowen home to be examined relative to the charge that he has made against Assistant Secretary of State Loomis. Messrs. Russell and Barrett indicated their entire satisfaction with ther transfers and informed the department that they would start for their new posts as soon as possible.

A Terrible Deed.

Early Saturday morning Mary Warburton, a domestic servant in the house of David Saylor, of Walnut street, Hightown, Manchester, England, found her master and mistress and their two sons, David Fordyce and James, aged respectively 15 and 10 years, dead in bed, death in each case being due to shots from a revolver. There can be no doubt from the circumstances in which the bodies were found that Taylor first murdered his wife and children as they lay asleep in the bed, and then took his own life. In the bedroom was an Irish terrier, which had also been shot. The body of a cat which had been poisoned was found in a trunk in a kitchen. After shooting his wife and children, Taylor appears to have sat down and written the following note:

"Poor Mary never moved. None of them ever knew anything, I think, and the servant seems to have heard nothing. I was afraid she might waken. If I could have obtained poison I would have done so, but failed, and so had to use the rougher way. Now it is my turn, and I must succeed. I had to use two or three for the boys before I was sure they had gone. I was afraid they might be suffering. My only fear now is that one will not be enough for myself. My loving boys! I tried not to spoil their faces."

Taylor, was about 50 years old, and was the local manager of the Edison Bell Phonograph Company. He was a deacon at a Presbyterian church near his house, and was also superintendent of the Sunday school.

The old Household Sewing Machine plant, owned by Wm. Cooper, in Providence, R. I., was entirely burned out by fire today. The loss will amount to $75,000. Eight firemen were injured most of them suffering from cuts and bruises.

News of the Day.

The stock market in New York Saturday was completely demoralized, frantic efforts to sell causing a terrible break in all securities.

The Russian Easter celebration passed without any marring incident, but fear is felt that there may be demonstrations today.

The Pope has given the right to all bishops in Europe as well as in America to remove priests from their parishes in defined cases without canonical trial.

Two men were instantly killed last night by the explosion of a tank in the electric-light plant at the Broad street station in Philadelphia of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Twenty-one persons were killed and scores injured in Laredo and in New Laredo, Texas, by the tornado which tore through those cities late Friday night, crossing the Rio Grande. Laredo has asked for help. Severe storms also occurred in Alabama and other sections of the far South and southwest.

The body of Joseph Jefferson was yesterday laid to rest in Bay View Cemetery, at Buzzards Bay, with simple but impressive ceremonies. Only the family and intimate friends were present. A public memorial service was held in the town hall, and the Players' Club in New York paid similar honor to the dead.

Shipowners believe the gasoline engine is to become the future power to be used in hoisting sails, anchors and cargoes aboard coasting schooners, and that the installation of the comparatively new power will further reduce the cost of operation of fore-and-aft vessels—a cost already extremely light compared to the old days of the square-riggers.

Twelve labor leaders, prominently identified with the teamsters' strike now in progress in Chicago, were indicted Saturday night by a grand jury. This was the last day's session of the present jury, and the indictments were returned to Judge McEwen just before the jury adjourned. Each indictment contains six counts, and charges the men with conspiracy.

The President attended church at the Old Blue Schoolhouse on West Divide Creek, near Glenwood Springs, Col., yesterday, and after the sermon by Rev. Horace Mann the President spoke for 10 minutes. He expressed his well-known views on good citizenship, the morality of man and patriotism and the duty to home and country. He was cheered heartily throughout his remarks.

Virginia News.

Charles W. Goodhart died on Saturday at his home, near Leesburg, aged seventy years.

Mrs. George Keller, aged 77, widow of S. M. Keller, a prominent resident and for years chief of police of Charlottesville, died yesterday.

It is reported that Eugene V. Debs is seeking the presidency of a new labor organization which seeks the overthrow of Samuel Gompers.

I. C. Fowler, speaker of the House during the Mahone regime, and later clerk of the United States Court at Abingdon, died at the latter place on Saturday, aged 73 years.

The Virginia Press Association, has accepted the invitation of the North Carolina Association to hold a joint session at Asheville. The meeting will begin July 4 in the Kenilworth Inn.

William H. Siebers, a Confederate soldier, died at his home in Leesburg Friday night from heart disease, at the age of sixty-six years He was a member of Company H, Eighth Virginia Regiment.

General Thomas L. Rosser, who was paralyzed about four weeks ago, is gradually improving. He drove from his home at "Rugby Hall" Saturday afternoon to his office in the postoffice building, in Charlottesville.

At Newport News yesterday Rev. E. T. Wellford, of the Presbyterian Church, preached a sensational serman, charging violations of the law against gambling at an Elks' fair and that the city officials are afraid to do their duty.

A trained nurse is in attendance on Governor Montague, who is quite ill with an abscess in his ear. His condition was rendered worse Saturday, when he attempted to walk unaided, fell and struck his affected ear against a chair.

One hundred and sixty-one men were discharged from the steam engineering department of the Norfolk navy yard Saturday. Included in this number are boilermakers, machinists, and molders and helpers. A deficit in the appropriation is assigned as the cause of the reduction.

It is understood that a syndicate has been organized in Washington for the purpose of building a $50,000 hotel on Bull Run battlefield. The proposed electric line from Winchester to Washington will pass directly by it, thus giving those who visit the field pleasant and comfortable quarters.

The State board of education in Richmond Saturday decided to begin Wednesday next the investigation of the charges made by Mr. J. D. Eggleston, jr., regarding the price of school registers. The sessions Saturday were mainly devoted to considering applications for the office of superintendents, without action.

A largely attended meeting of voters favoring the candidacy of Claude Swanson for the democratic nomination for governor, was held in Lynchburg Saturday night. It was reported that 500 names had been secured as members for a Swanson club, and a committee was appointed to invite Mr. Swanson to speak there at an early date.

It was decided Saturday to exhume the body of Ralph Smith, the six-year-old Manchester boy, who, it is charged, was beaten to death by his mother. The question had been raised by the defense whether the child died from causes other than the beating, and to determine the question a post mortem examination will be held. The line of defense will be that the boy's death was due to his own evil habits, and that the mother is not responsible for his end.

Herman Miller, a merchant at Elkton, Rockingham county, committed suicide Saturday at his home by strangling himself to death with a strap. He was found in a closet by his wife when she went to call him to breakfast. Miller was about forty-five years of age and was a native of Holland. He was married about six months ago in Baltimore, his bride having only recently come from the old country to wed him. No cause is known for the rash act. His business at Elkton was successful.

GENERAL LEE'S REMAINS SENT TO RICHMOND.

The remains of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee were today removed to Richmond for burial. Mrs. Lee arrived in Washington from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock, and made known her wishes in the matter to Lieut. Gov. Willard who, with a party of officials from Richmond, was at the station to meet her. A squadron of cavalry and a battalion of artillery from Fort Myer and a battalion of engineers from the Washington barracks escorted the remains from Epiphany Church where services were held at 11:45 this morning conducted by Rev. R. H. McKim, to the railroad station. The body was taken to Richmond on a special train which left Washington this afternoon at 1 o'clock On its arrival in Richmond the remains will be taken to the city hall where they will lie in state Thursday afternoon, when the military funeral, and commitment service will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, where Gen. Lee worshipped. Bishop Randolph, of Virginia, has been asked to officiate. The arrangements for the funeral services are in the hands of Lieut. Gov. Willard and the officials of the State of Virginia and municipal government of Richmond.

The services will be of a military character, however, and it is expected that companies of the militia from Richmond Petersburg, Norfolk, Suffolk, Lynchburg Charlottesville and Danville will participate.

The train on which Mrs. Lee came to Washington was over an hour late in arriving. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Fowle, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Lee, and Mrs. Mann Page, of Richmond, an intimate personal friend, were with her. They met her in Lynchburg. Lieut. Gov. Willard, Colonel Jo. Lane Stern and Mayor Carlton McCarthy of Richmond, who arrived in the city on an earlier train, were at the station to meet her. With them were Mr. Daniel M. Lee, a brother of Gen. Lee; Major E T. D. Myers, Major R. W. Hunter and others.

Neither of her daughters accompanied Mrs. Lee on her trip, and she was alone until she reached Lynchburg, where her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fowle, were waiting for her. From them she learned the details of the general's illness and death. The telegram announcing his illness was interpreted to mean that his condition was not serious, and Mrs. Lee started for Washington alone.

On arriving at the station she was driven to Providence hospital. She was shown into the room where her husband's remains were lying waiting her arrival. She remained at the hospital a short time, and was then driven to the residence of Miss Virginia Dorsey, where she spent the night.

A committee of officers of the regular army, including Maj. Gen. Gillespie, Brig. Gen. Burton, Maj. Kean and Capt. Michie, yesterday arranged a programme as follows for the conduct of the remains from the church to the railroad station:

The following programme was announced by the committee directing the ceremonies attending the removal of the remains of Brig. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, U. S. A. (retired), from the Church of the Epiphany to the Pennsylvania Railway station, Washington, D. C., on Monday, May 1, 12 o'clock noon. Pallbearers have been selected as follows and are hereby requested to assemble at the office of the Inspector General, U. S. A., War Department, at 11:15 o'clock a. m.;

The Secretary of War, the Assistant Secretary of War, Maj. Gen. George L. Gillespie, Brig. Gen. John F. Weston, Brig. Gen. George B. Davis, Brig. Gen. George H. Burton, Brig. Gen. Andrew S. Burt, Brig. Gen. Edward M. Hayes, Brig. Gen. Tully McCrea, Col. Clarence R. Edwards, Col. George E. Pond, Maj. Jefferson R. Kean, Maj. Chauncey B. Baker, Capt. Robert E. L. Michie, Mr. Leigh Robinson, Senator John W. Daniel, Senator Culberson, Gen. L. L. Lomax, Maj. Robert W. Hunter, Hon. John Goode, Dr. H. St. George Tucker, Dr. Gordon, Capt. Herbert Bryant, Col. Thomas Smith, Dr. Shirley Carter, Capt. W. P. Carter, Maj. Holmes Conrad, Mr. John M. Johnson, Hon. Connally F. Trigg, Col. Arthur Herbert, Mr. W. P. Mason, Messrs. Samuel W. Spencer, H. Rozier Dulaney, H. B. Littlepage, H. H. Marmaduke.

The escort formed at Epiphany Church at 11:30 o'clock, in the following order:

Music, military escort, clergy, caisson, pallbearers, mourners, official delegations representing the State of Virginia and city of Richmond, Lieut. Gov. Joseph E. Willard, Col. Jo Lane Stern, Col. Robert E. Lee jr., Mayor Carlton McCarthy, Major E. T. D. Myers, officers of the Seventh Army Corps, war with Spain; other officers United States army, navy, and Marine Corps, other members of commands to which deceased belonged, societies, and civivilans.

The military resort, composed of one squadron of cavalry, one battery of field artillery, and two companies of engineer troops, will be formed facing the church at 11:30 o'clock a. m.

Maj. Edward Burr, of the engineer corps af the army, commanded the escort. The Confederate Veterans, under Commander John T. Callaghan, took part as a guard of honor on the march from the church to the railroad station.

Since 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the remains of Gen. Lee laid in state at the Church of the Epiphany, in Washington. The casket remained at Providence Hospital yesterday in the main receptian room until it was removed quietly to the church. Mrs. Lee and a group of relatives and friends went from the hospital to the church in carriages.

A detail of eight non-commissioned officers from the Seventh Cavalry today acted as body bearers and accompanied the remains to this city, where they were replaced by a detachment of one officer and eight men from the Alexandria Light Infantry, who, in turn, will be relieved at Fredericksburg by a similar detachment from the Washington Guards.

At Richmond the cortege will be met at the union depot by companies A, B, C, F, and H, of the Seventieth Regiment; companies A and B, of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues; Battery A, First Battalion of Field Artillery; R. E. Lee Camp and Pickett Camp, of the Richmond Confederate Veterans, the Association of the Cavalry Veterans of the Army of Northern Virginia, of which Gen. Lee was president, and many other organizations. A detail of six veterans of R. E. Lee Camp, of Richmond, met the remains at Alexandria, and continued as a guard of honor to Richmond. A committee appointed by the governor and the organizations of Richmond will select the honorary pallbearers, who will act during the ceremonies there.

It was found necessary to delay the funeral until Thursday, so that the general's son, Lieut. George Mason Lee, who was at San Francisco on his way to the Philippines, may be present. Lieut. Lee is expected at Richmond Wednesday night. Lieut. Fitzhugh Lee, the elder son, is in the Philippines. Mrs. Ellen Rhea, wife of Lieut. James Rhea, and Miss Virginia Lee, two of the general's daughters, reached Richmond last night, and will join their mother upon her arrival there. Gen. Lee's other daughter, Mrs. Anne Lee Brown, wife of Lieut. Brown, of the Seventh Cavalry, with her husband, sailed from San Francisco Saturday with the second squadron of the Seventh Cavalry.

Mrs. Roosevelt was the first to send flowers and since these arrived, numerous handsome pieces were received from organizations and individuals. Mrs. Lee has received numerous telegrams of condolence from all over the United States, and from abroad. Those accompanying Mrs. Lee on the special train include the following relatives: Mr. B. H. Fowle, her brother; Capt. D. M. Lee, the general's brother; Col. Robert E. Lee, jr., Miss Virginia Mason Dorsey, Miss Laura Lee Dorsey, Dr. Robert F. Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Minor.

FROM RICHMOND.

Governor Montague's Condition—Honors to the Late Gen. Lee

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., May 1.—Governor Montague rested better last night and was slightly improved today. He will hardly be out this week. He is under the constant care of a physician and a trained nurse and no one is allowed to see him.

The Governor today issued a proclamation concerning General Lee's death and funeral, closing the State offices and paying a beautiful tribute to the distinguished dead. Ex-Governor O'Ferral is to head the cortege which will meet the remains in this city and attend the funeral. The City Hall is draped and municipal business is suspended. Council meets at 4 o'clock to take further action.

The Chicago Strike.

Chicago, May 1.—No compromise. Long continued efforts of the Chicago Federation of Labor, associated employers, the Mayor, and citizens whom he called into consultation Sunday resulted in no signs of peace. May day opened with premonitions of strife in the streets. No concessions were made by the employers; none were given by the employees. Five hundred delegates from various labor unions gathered at the meeting of the federation, and all heartily subscribed to the sentiments of Charles Dold, president, when he made a fiery speech, the text of which was: "A fight to the finish." On the part of capital the work of importation of strike breakers was actively pursued during the day and this morning five hundred men arrived on a special train from St. Louis. Five hundred more strike breakers are scheduled to come to Chicago tonight, from the same and other sections. They are given assurance that their employment is to be permanent. A large number of these imported men are negroes. Of all strike breaking elements the negro is considered to be the most likely to precipitate active hostilities. The available strength of the police was thrown into the struggle this morning. Chief O'Neill has delivered an ultimatum, that traffic must be unimpeded and that disorder must stop. There is to be no more temporizing, he says, and no more waiting for shots to be fired before police action is taken. One thousand bluecoats have been ordered to see that these commands are obeyed.

Further federal interference is expected to come today when the attorneys for the Employers' Teaming Company submit to Judge Kohlsaat the names of a number of union men, possibly one hundred, in contempt proceedings. The business suffering the most at this stage of the teamsters' strike, is that of the large department stores in State street, and the commission merchants in south Water street. Arrests are being made of the twelve men indicted by the county grand jury Saturday night. They are charged with conspiring to do a specific illegal act. Another fatality was added to the strike this morning, when Sergeant Richard Cummings, the police officer who was run down by a union teamster, died at the county hospital.

One hundred and thirty additional teamsters went in strike this morning. As in prior instances the men walked out when ordered to deliver goods to firms against whom the strike ban had been issued. Clarence Darrow has been retained to defend the labor leaders indicted by the grand jury. The arrival of "strike breaker" Farley from New York promised a new turn to the strike today. Immediately on his arrival Farley had a conference with representatives of the employers. Plans for putting him in charge of all strike breakers are said to have been decided upon.

Actual disturbances began to be noted about 11 o'clock when a caravan of wagons of the A. M. Forbes Teaming Company and Sprague, Warner & Co., passed over the Adams street bridge. Passing the city hall, missiles and eggs, or shells filled with acid, were thrown at nine colored men on the seats. The negroes drew black jacks and revolvers and the nearby police placed all of them under arrest, and locked them up in the city hall station.

Revolutionary Conference.

Paris, May 1.—The revolutionary conference which was summoned for the purpose of discussing the internal situation in Russia, by Father Capon, who was the leader of the workingmen in St. Petersburg, on "Red Sunday," has just come to an end. Resolutions were adopted outlining the demands of the revolutionists for changes in Russia, and plans were made to carry on the agitation for a revolution in a systematic way. The conference was attended by delegates representing the Russian socialist party, the Polish socialist party, the white Ruthenian socialist party of southwestern Russian proper, the socialist union of workmen, of Livonia, the Finnish active resistance party, the federalist revolutionists of Georgia in Russian Trans-Caucasus, and the Armenian revlutionary federation. The establishment of a republic in Russia proper with freedom of speech, and of the press, the release of politcal and religious prisoners, an autonomous government for Finland, the convocation of a national Polish diet, and the ultimate establishment of an autonomus democratic federation for the Caucasus are some of the reforms demanded in the resolutions.

Conditions in Russia.

St. Petersburg, May 1, 10:30 a. m.—Despite the optimistic reports which have been circulated for many days that today was to be marked by rioting and bloodshed. Up to this hour there have been no outbreaks of any description. The indications are now that there will be no rioting.

Warsaw, May 1. 10:30 a. m.—Warsaw has been quiet all the morning. There is a constant dread that an outbreak may occur at any moment. It is believed, however, that the day will pass quietly.

London, May 1.—A bulletin which has just reached here from Warsaw says that a collision between citizens and troops occurred this afternoon. Sixty casualties are reported.

London, May 1.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, from St. Petersburg, states that a bomb outrage occurred there this afternoon, in which two persons were wounded. No details of the affair are obtainable.

Warsaw, May 1.—Early this afternoon, a clash occurred between the troops and the people, which scattered the hopes that the Easter holidays would pass off without bloodshed. A crowd of several thousand persons who were marching through the streets carrying red flags, was stopped by the troops. The cavalry made a charge on the people. The infantry also took a hand in suppressing the demonstration, and the soldiers fired several volleys. Many people fell before the fire and the people scattered. The number of casualties reported is thirty-one killed and fifteen wounded. Later great crowds of people assembled and a demonstration is now in progress.

The Nan Patterson Case.

New York, May 1.—Within forty-eight hours Nan Patterson should know whether the jury now trying her for the murder of Caesar Young holds her innocent or guilty. The case will either go to the jury late today or early tomorrow.

Abraham Levy, chief counsel for the actress, began the summing up for the defense when court opened this morning. The summing up was a general attack on the prosecution's case. Assistant District Attorney Rand will sum up for the State, this afternoon, and Recorder Goff will then charge the jury.

Nan Patterson has great faith in her acquittal. She appeared almost radiantly happy this morning, as she walked into court and spoke to her father. When the case was called this morning Mr. Levy says:

"The defendant rests,"

"And you, Mr. District Attorney, ?" asked Recorder Goff.

"We have no more witnesses to call," said Mr. Rand, the prosecutor. Recorder Goff nodded, and Mr. Levy began his address to the jury.

Paul Jones's Remains.

Paris, May 1.—The French government has decided to make the removal of the remains of John Paul Jones, the naval hero of the American revolution, the occasion for a great demonstration in honor of his memory and of showing France's regard for the great sister republic. The arrival of the American squadron, which will convey the body to the United States, will be celebrated with a great military and naval demonstration. The coffin containing the remains of the admiral will be borne in state through the streets of Paris, escorted by French soldiers and sailors, as well as government representatives. Plans are already being considered for making the occasion a memorable one.

Steel Rails for Russia.

Birmingham, May 1.—The Post states that two agents of the Russian government sailed on Saturday for New York, to arrange for the purchase of 40,000 tons of steel rails. The rails are to be used in double tracking the Trans-Siberian railway. This is the road over which all the Russian troops and supplies must be transported to Manchuria. Russia has been greatly handicapped all during the war by the fact that she was compelled to rely on a single railway line for communication with the army. There are still hundreds of miles of the road to be built.

May Day Celebrations.

Belgrade, May 1.—Several thousand workmen on their way to Topshidar Park, today, to enjoy the May Day festivities, paraded the streets led by bands and flying banners. The marchers sang the Marseillaise, and shouted "Vive Socialism," Vive Russian revolution."

Paris, May 1.—May Day was celebrated in all parts of France today. In all the more important cities of the country the celebrations took the form of labor meetings which were attended by immense crowds.

The Baltic Fleet.

London, May 1.—The correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company, at Saigon, Cochin China, says that the Baltic fleet is lying off Port Dagal, forty miles north of Kamranh Bay. The French squadron has been mobilized, the correspondent says to see that the neutrality of French waters is maintained.

King Edward in Versailles.

Paris, May 1.—King Edward went to Versailles today where he remained for lunch. This afternoon the king went to St. Cloud, where he was spectator at the races.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 1.—The stock market was demoralized again this morning. There was rush of selling orders from all over the country, and declines of from one to four points were numerous. Europe bought over 100,000 shares, and this movement checked the decline. Later good supporting orders came into the market and the list again moved upward.

During a quarrel early this morning, at Oswego, N. Y., Salvadore Commella, an Italian, aged 70, shot his son-in-law, Peter Sereno, aged 47, twice in the body and escaped. Sereno will die.

Letter to Wm. Demaine & Son,
Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sirs: Three gallons saved is $12 to $15 earned.

Mr Hanford Platt of Bridgeport, Conn, ordered 15 gallons Devoe to paint his house, and returned 3 gallons. His painter said it would take 15; a lead-and-oil painter.

Hubbell & Wade Co sold it. They say everybody has the same experience there.

The reason is, of course; they are used to poor paint.

What is poor paint? Anthing not Devoe; some worse than others.

Besides, paints wear about as they cover. Double the $12 to $15. Yours truly

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Mrs. Sarah Cooke, widow of John Cook, founder of the Cooke Locomotive Works, died at Patterson, N. J., today, aged 76 years.

The citizens of cyclone-swept Laredo, Texas, began cleaning the debris from the streets today. The total number of deaths is 16 and more than 125 were injured. A severe storm did much damage at Georgetown Sunday. Half a dozen houses were blown down.

Charged with the theft of two jewelled fans and clothing valued at $800 from Mrs. Wm. Slater in Washington, a handsome woman of 31, well gowned and with every appearance of refinement, who is said to be the Baroness Devize, wife of Baron Otto Maria Devize, was arraigned in New York today. She tried to jump from the court house window, but was restrained, and later left for Washington in charge of a detective.

At Reading, Pa., today, Samuel F. Greason, colored, was granted a new trial by Judge Ermentraut on the charge of murdering John Edwards at Stochsburg, July 3, 1901, in complicity with Edwards's wife. It is generally expected that the negro will now be acquitted and that Mrs. Edwards will be hanged, she having confessed and exonerated Greason from any share in the murder.

Edward Perkarz was arrested in New York this morning charged with the murder of Mrs. Sarah Rosenberg, whose body was found in her flat at 332 east 151st street on Saturday. Perkarz when taken to police headquarters confessed to having committed the murder last Monday for the purpose of robbery. Perkarz boarded with the woman. When the murder was first discovered the police gave the woman's name as Mrs. Whalen.

The failure of Dudley Joseph, a member of the New York Consolidated Stock Exchange, was announced today.

Thirteen Miners Entombed.

Thirteen miners were entombed and probably killed by an explosion early yesterday in the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Coal Company's mine near Wilburton, Oklahoma. Their bodies may not be recovered for several days.

The men went into the shaft at midnight. Foreman William Ray, of the shift that left the mine at that hour, says that the mine was in good condition and a gas explosion was hardly probable. His shift left a shot hanging and this the new shift may have fired. It is suggested, from the force of the explosion, which could be heard for miles around and which tore heavy timbers aside and piled tons of dirt into the shaft, that a bad shot had set off some dynamite which had been stored conveniently for work in pushing the entries.

The shaft is 350 feet deep. The men were supplied with air fanned from the shaft and by means of compressed-air tubes.

The Chicago Strike.

Chicago had on working clothes yesterday as a result of the teamsters' strike, which failed of spreading and of settlement. From daylight until dark downtown streets were crowded with heavily laden wagons, giving the city a weekday appearance.

Early yesterday morning 500 men and boys, headed by a number of striking teamsters, attacked the main stables of the Employers' Teaming Company and stampeded the animals. This was a violation of the Federal injunction issued by Judge Kohlsaat. The names of the union men involved, it is said, have been secured, and they will be brought into court today.

All efforts to end the strike were failures. Yesterday President Roosevelt, Governor Deneen and Mayor Dunne have been called on by the strikers to investigate existing conditions before troops are ordered to the city.

Viiginia Republicans.

The executive committee of the republican party of Virginia, composed of one member from each congressional district, or in some cases his proxy, met in Lynchburg Saturday night, C. Boscomb Slemp presiding. The committee decided to call a meeting of the full State committee to meet in that city June 21, to determine upon a date and issue call for a State convention to nominate a lull State ticket.

The Late General Lee.

Mayor Paff yesterday directed Lieutenant Smith of the police force to transmit the following dispatch to the family of the late General Fitzhugh Lee:

The sympathy of the citizens of Alexandria is with you in your sad bereavement."

F. J. PAFF, Mayor.

Today several hundred people gathered at the Fayette street depot before the train bearing the body of Gen. Lee arrived here on its way to Richmond. The Alexandria Light Infantry, now Company G, Seventy-first Virginia infantry, in charge of Capt. Murphy and Lieutenants Demaine and Robey, was on hand, as well as a detail from R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans of Richmond, which arrived here this morning. R. E. Lee Camp of this city had gone to Washington earlier in the day in order to attend the funeral services at Epiphany Church and to accompany the remains.

The detail from Company G which accompanied the remains to Fredericksburg was composed of Sergeants Smythe, Lucas, Dodson, Talbott, Brooks, and McGowan, and Corporals Nagel and Carter. They were in charge of Capt. Murphy.

A beautiful floral tribute, red, white and red, connected by blue ribbon, from Company G, was added to the floral offerings when the train arrived.

The train was scheduled to leave Washington at 1 o'clock p. m., but it was 1:30 before it reached the depot in this city. By this time the crowd had been augmented considerably. The bell in the City Hall was tolling, as were the fire and the church bells in the city. The locomotive attached to the funeral train was draped in mourning with the bell muffled. It took but a few minutes for the details to board the train and it was soon winding its way through the city. Most of those at the depot stood with uncovered heads as the train moved away.

No Saloons in the County.

Judge Nichol on Saturday refused every application for a liquor license in Alexandria county. He gave as a reason that the county did not have police protection as he construed the Mann law. There were eleven applications and all were rejected.

After an all-day session of the Circuit Court, for Alexandria county, at which the liquor men were represented by Attorneys Mschee and Moncure and opposed by the State Anti-Saloon League and numerous remonstrants, represented by Attorney Frank Lyon, Judge Nicol rejected all of the eleven applications for licenses upon the ground that Alexandria county is not provided with police protection by the State.

Judge Nicol stated that it had been his custom to grant all liquor licenses where the people of the community did not take sufficient interest in the matter to enter their protest, as was the case last year. He said he might properly reject all liquor license in Alexandria county upon the evidence presented to the court showing that it was not to the material interest of the county to have such licenses, but he would enter an order rejecting all licenses upon the ground before stated.

The effect of this order will be to close eleven saloons and to suppress all liquor selling at Rosslyn on Sunday.

It was stated by the court that under the Mann liquor law no licenses could be granted in communities where the state did not furnish police protection independently of the county government, and that Alexandria county is clearly unprovided with such protection.

The friends of the liquor men predict that speakeasies will take the place of the saloons.

A protest was filed in the court signed by all the officers and their wives at Fort Myer and by about a hundred soldiers against the licensing of saloons along the military road, and practically all the brick companies in Jefferson district presented petitions of protest against granting any licenses in that locality. It was proved that two of the applicants for liquor licenses had a majority of the qualified voters on their petitions, but the majority represented less than 3 per cent of the property interests in the respective magisterial districts.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man, arrested by Conductor Park for disorderly conduct on an electric train and injuring property of the company, was fined $2.50.

James Williams and Henry Brown, both colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Young for fighting, were fined $5 each.

William Wiley, arrested by Officers Betis and Sherwood for disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Several colored women and men, arrested by Officers Smith, Nicholson, Ferguson and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct, were fined—the women $5 each, and the men $2.50 each.

Joseph Parker, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Arrington charged with selling cocaine, was fined $100.

Martha Johnson, colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Nicholson charged with vagrancy, was fined $10.

Matilda Tolson, colored, arrested by the same officers on a similar charge, was fined $2.50.

Martha Lewis, colored, arrested by Officers Mayhugh and Lyles charged with attempting to sell a watch which had been stolen from a man by a woman on north Lee street, had her case continued.

A white man, charged with non-support of his family, was released upon his personal bond.

Horace Twyman, colored, arrested by by Officer Roberts charged with assaulting Ida Winfield, was dismised and the woman fined $2.

New Officers.

Officers James Patterson and C. W. Bell, recently elected members of the police force, today entered upon the duties of their office, succeeding Officers Howson and Ticer, retired.

The Merrymakers will give a ball at McBurney's Hall tonight.

Fire.

About nine o'clock this morning a gasoline stove in a small frame house opposite the Fayette street depot exploded with a dull report and soon filled the room in which it was situated with a blaze which danced upward and in a few seconds' time had ignited the ceiling. An alarm was sent in and the fire department was soon at the scene and at work. The inflammable nature of the house caused it to burn rapidly and the fire spread to adjoining frame structures. A brisk northwest wind was prevailing at the time and sparks and embers were wafted toward the southeast. The roofs of seven houses were set on fire, and the department was taxed to its utmost in preventing the destruction of the same. The roof of the depot building was found to be burning, as well as that of Mr. W. H. Cox's saloon on the southeast corner of Cameron and Fayette streets and other houses on Cameron street. Sparks also ignited the roofs of houses on the north side of King street, between Patrick and Henry. The house in which the fire originated was totally destroyed, and three adjoining it on the north and south gutted. There were narrow escapes from death in some instances. A colored man and woman were asleep in an upper room of one of the houses, and they were compelled to jump from a window. While this was going on a colored man in a gymnostic condition ran from one of the burning structures and took refuge in a nearby house. The structures were wooden, small and frail, and have for years been used as cookshops or saloons, which were patronized mostly by colored people. It was generally admitted that the fire department manifested proficiency in preventing the spread of the fire.

Disturbed the Nest.

As was stated in the Gazette, a fight occurred Saturday morning among two colored men in the block bounded by Cameron, Queen, Fayette and Henry streets, in which bottles, stones and knives were used. Officers Smith and Young soon appeared and took the principals to the station house. They were fined $5 each this morning. The square described above has long been the retreat of many idle negroes of both sexes, and their orgies at night have often attracted attention. The segregations at the eating houses and some saloons in the neighborhood are a source of annoyance to quiet people living in the vicinity. Officers Smith, Nicholson, Ferguson and Arrington last night made a descent upon a house and arrested a number of men and women. When arraigned in the Police Court this morning the women asserted that that they washed for the men and the latter pretended that they had called for their clothes when arrested. The women were fined $5 each and the men $2.50.

Charters

The Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Maryland Telegraph Company of Richmond. The officers are Arthur Wall, of Baltimore, president; F. W. Eskridge, of Prince George's county, secretary, treasurer and director. The capital stock is $10,000, and the object is to build and operate a telegraph line and a railroad.

The Corporation Commission has chartered the Columbia Towing Company, incorporated. The principal office is to be in Alexandria, and the incorporators, are E. C. Cummel, president; Joseph H. Lee, secretary and treasurer; G. O. Robinson, director, all of Washington. The capital stock is, maximum, $50,000; minimum, $25,000.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The docket was called and cases set.

Edward Klock vs. Washington-Southern Railway Co.; a suit for the killing of a cow; case continued.

Ticer vs. City Council; a suit involving the right of the city to collect a King street paving bill; case set for Friday.

Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county vs. City Council; a suit concerning the sale of the old courthouse and jail properties; final decree.

The jury summoned was adjourned till Wednesday at 10 o'clock to which time court adjourned.

Thrown from Buggy.

A lady and a gentleman had a narrow escape from serious injury near Spring Park yesterday evening. They were seated in a buggy and were driving on the north side of the electric railway track when an incoming train passed which frightened the horse, causing the animal to run down the embankment. The occupants were thrown out but fortunately neither was materially injured. A number of people ran to their rescue and stopped the horse. Later the gentleman and lady got into the buggy and drove away.

Fined One Hundred Dollars.

A colored man named Joseph Parker was before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning charged with selling cocaine to people of his own race. Some of the witnesses were women, and the effects of the narcotic were manifest in some of them. The evidence against the accused was positive, and he was fined $100. The unlawful sale of cocaine has, it is believed, been going on for some time. The supplies are said to be procured in Washington.

Yesterday.

The weather yesterday was bright and crisp, and was greatly enjoyed by young and old alike. There was a fair attendance at both the morning and night services in the churches. In the afternoon the streets were thronged with people, while many visited the environs, West End and the line of the railroads north of the city. An average number of visitors were here during the day.

Accidents.

Mr. John Crupper, an employer of the Washington-Southern Railway, broke one of his ankles while at work on a train Saturday.

Mr. Winter Crupper a day or two ago jumped upon a board from which a nail was protuding, and the point passed entirely through his foot. The member is now in a swollen condition and is causing apprehension.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

J. Blake Kendall and F. A. Belt vs. United States Sanitary Co.; report of W. E. Porter, receiver, filed and decree directing receiver to continue business.

Sebastian Bergbauer, a native of Germany, was granted his final naturalization paper.

The Internal Revenue Office.

Mr. Park Agnew, who has been collector of internal revenue for this district since 1897, this morning formally turned over the office to his successor, Mr. L. P. Summers. The oath of office was administered to the latter by Mr. R. P. W. Garnett, deputy clerk of the United States Court. The employees in the office were at work all day yesterday in closing up the business preparatory to its relinquishment by Mr. Agnew. There will be but one immediate change in the personnel of the office. Dr. E. P. McLean, chief deputy, will be succeeded by Mr. W. M. Slemp, a son of Congressman Slemp. Yesterday all the deputies throughout the district were here settling their accounts with the office and today all entered upon their duties under the new collector. Mr. Agnew upon his retirement today became a private citizen, and in future will devote his time and energies to the Alexandria shipyard, the wood and coal business and manufacture of bricks, he having leased the interests of others in the Alexandria Brick Works.

Fra Diavolo.

The pretty opera "Fra Diavolo," will be rendered at the Opera House tonight and tomorrow night by "Sharps and Flats." The principal characters will be represented by Miss Myra Lee Civalier, Miss Edna Scott Smith and Messrs. William Clabaugh, Harry Stevens, George H. Evans, Harry B. Caton and J. Harris Franklin. The final rehearsals show a high degree of proficiency on the part of both the leading singers and the chorus, and excellent performances are anticipated.

Personal.

Officers Sherwood and Bettis have been assigned by Mayor Paff for duty at the station house.

Miss Lucy Brooke, who has been visiting Misses Lucy and Eloise Brooke in Norfolk, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. E. J. Burke, now of Boston, who has been visiting his father, Mr. J. W. Burke, left for his home today.

New Work at Gas Works.

The committee on light met on Saturday night and awarded the contract for the erection of two new benches and other improvements at the gas works to the Baltimore Retort and Fire Brick Company for $4,295. There were three bidders, the other two being Baxter & Young, of Pittsburg, and the Parker & Russell Mining and Manufacturing Company of St Louis. The bids were all close.

The George Washington.

The ocean tugboat Tormentor, of Baltimore, arrived here this morning for the purpose of towing the old ferry steamer George Washington to New York. The work of preparing the steamer for the trip was begun at once and at 1 o'clock this evening the old steamer was towed out of her dock at the ferry slip and started on her journey.

Confirmation Services.

Bishop Gibson paid an official visit to St. Paul's Church yesterday morning where he preached and confirmed a class of eleven. His sermon was an able discourse and was attentively listened to by the large congregation present. In the evening the Bishop preached and confirmed a class of eight at the Theological Seminary.

The Fishery.

There is still a depression among fishermen. The receipts of shad show no improvement and prices continue high. Herring are not as plentiful as last week, although all demands are met. It is now generally admitted that the shad fishery of 1905 will prove as unsatisfactory as that of last year.

Lee Camp.

Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will hold its monthly meeting tonight and in addition to the regular business the camp will take suitable action concerning the death of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A marriage license was issued in Washington Saturday to Robert E. L. Risdon and Vivian B. Anderson, both of Warrenton.

The Episcopal High School baseball team went to Fredericksburg today to play a game with the team of Fredericksburg College.

The season for oyster catching ended last Saturday night and it will be unlawful from now until September to dredge the bivalve.

You have until next Saturday night to pay that poll-tax. If it hasn't been paid by that time, then you can't vote either in the primary or at the general election.

The premises of Mr. J. E. Cornnell, on the east side of Fayette street, between King and Prince, were invaded last night by thieves and a ham and other articles stolen from the larder.

The regular monthly meeting of Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) morning in Lee Camp Hall at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Gardner L. Boothe has engaged Mr. J. F. Rodgers to build a handsome addition to his residence on Princess street, near Washington.

The remains of Horace Strother, the colored boy who shot himself Friday night, were forwarded to Herndon today by Demaine & Son.

Mrs. Frances A. M. Smith has sold to Mr. F. M Hill a house and lot on the north side of Princess street, between Royal and Pitt.

At the annual meeting of the Columbia Real Estate Company held today the old officers were re-elected.

The Mayflower Club will give their first dance at Schuler's Hall tonight.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron of Milton Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been throughly cured Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Herbert W. Bowen, Minister to Venezuela, yesterday cabled Secretary Taft that he could leave Caracas today for Washington to produce his proof of his charges against the official integrity of Francis B. Loomis, Assistant Secretary of State, but that he would like to wait until the next steamer, in order to arrange his affairs. Mr. Taft cabled back that he might delay his homecoming long enough to settle his affairs, as he is not to return to Caracas in any event.

HAMLINS

WIZARD OIL

No time should be lost, because lung trouble may easily develop into pneumonia or consumption. Hamlins Wizard Oil, applied to the chest, relieves the pain and inflammation, loosens up the cough and soon cures the disease.

"My little girl," writes Rich. W. Thornton of Quray, Colo., "suffered more or less with a cold on the lungs since her birth, and finally the trouble became serious. No remedies gave relief, until we tried Hamlins Wizard Oil, one bottle of which permanently cured her." Price 50c and $1.00.

Doctors and Celibacy.

There was once a time when doctors were doomed to celibacy. It was at the conclusion of the mediaeval period, when medicine was in the hands of the monks. In France the habit of celibacy persisted long after the practice of medicine had passed into lay hands. For two or three centuries the doctors protested, but in vain. The matter was finally laid before the pope and toward the end of the fifteenth century the vow was abolished.

Two Points of View.

"I think," said an exasperated old deacon as he slowly elevated himself from the pavement to a perpendicular, "the full grown man who throws an orange peel on the sidewalk is no Christian." "Well," said a bystander, "what do you think of an orange peel that throws a full grown man on the sidewalk?"

Justified.

"I wish they'd invent a new expression occasionally," said Top as he perused the account of a recent wedding. "It's always 'the blushing' bride."

"Well," repiled Mrs. Top, "when you consider what sort of husbands most girls have to marry you can't wonder at their blushing."

After the Consultation.

"Well, Drs. Brown and Smith are going to operate upon old Gotrox."

"Is the operation necessary?"

"Why, yes: Brown has a note coming due, and Smith wants an automobile."—Puck.

The Leek.

"Say, waiter, this plate must be cracked; the table is wet."

"No, sir; there's a leek in the soup."

Warning to Mothers.

The "only child in the family" in 66 per cent shows disadvantageous traits. It is usually of poor health, lacking much of normality, both mental and physical. The "youngest child," the "only boy" and the "only girl" display many striking resemblances to the "only child."—Medical News.

A Shock.

"Now, Henry," she began, with a set jaw, "I must have $10 today."

"All right," replied her husband, "here it is."

"Gracious, Henry!" she exclaimed suddenly paling. "What's the matter? Are you ill?"

His Wish Was Gratified.

Her head had dropped upon his shoulder.

"If only," he whispered, "thy cheek could remain there forever!"

Little thought he what was to be.

Little thought he until he got home and tried to remove her cheek from his dress coat with ammonia and alcohol.

Apples as "Nightcaps."

The apple is such a common fruit that very few persons are familiar with its remarkably efficacious medicinal properties. Every one ought to know that the very best thing he can do is to eat apples just before retiring for the night.—Family Doctor.

A Wise Precaution.

Junior Partner—Our traveler ought to be discharged. He told one of our customers that I am an ignorant fool. Senior Partner—I shall speak to him and insist that no more office secrets be divulged.

Tribute to Mrs. Osler.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, whose one hundred and seventh annual session closed in Baltimore, Thursday, did a very graceful thing when the following telegram was sent to Dr. William Osler's mother, who is 98 years of age, and lives in Canada:

"The greetings of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland to Mrs. Osler, asking her to share their sentiments in taking leave of William Osler, congratulating Mrs. Osler first on the distinguished career of her son, but most on the innate qualities which have endeared him to his associates in Maryland."

Dr. Osler returned to Baltimore from a visit to his mother the latter part of last week. His father lived to the age of 91 years.

Negro Minister's Invocation.

The feature of the session of the New York assembly yesterday was the prayer delivered by Rev. C. H. McDonald, a negro minister. He prayed loudly that "when life's journey is at an end ew ask Thee to bring us to that general assembly where Jesus Christ will be the speaker and business shall be transacted without graft or the dictation of the lobbyist." The reference to graft was greeted with roars of laughter, and Speaker Nixon had difficulty in getting the members to subdue their merriment.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrup is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nerve-tissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.

Serious Stomach Trouble.

I was troubled with a distress in my stomach, sour stomach and vomiting spells, and can truthfully say that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me.—MRS. T. V. WILLIAMS, Laingsburg, Mich. These tablets are guaranteed to cure every case of stomach trouble of this character. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

New York Tribune Farmer

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.

N. Y. Tribune Almanac.

If you never examined The Tribune Almanac just invest a quarter for once, and see how well pleased you'll be. The 1905 one will be on sale January 1, and may be had from your newsdealer, through your local paper or direct from The Tribune office, New York.
